Points Discussed

- A detailed introduction of the antiragging committee was given by Dr. Rajashree Hirlekar mam.
- It was decided that student council should conduct activities such as skits, drawing competitions reflecting the consequences of ragging.
- Boolani sir stressed on the importance of Gender equality and women empowerment.
- There was a joint consensus regarding increasing the frequency of meetings. In this context, class teachers should conduct meeting with their respective classes every three months to take review. Depending upon their feedback, additional meeting of antiragging committee will be conducted. Also Mentoring committee can approach, through Teacher I/C of student council, in case of any grievances.
- The police inspector who is currently a part of the committee shared her views on the importance of consent and enlightened everyone present about the acts which are in play currently.
- The NGO member shared her views on how having an anti- ragging environment is useful for the overall growth of the students.
- There was a joint affirmation to the fact that no such incident has ever occurred in our campus.

A Report on

Anti-ragging session conducted in the FY B. Pharm Class

An Anti-ragging session was conducted on the 28th of January in order to sensitize the students of FY B Pharm class regarding the various aspects of ragging and it being a punishable offence. The seminar was conducted by the General Secretary of the college Mr. Viren K Bhatia under the supervision of Dr. Sameer Padhye. The session commenced in the afternoon at 2:30 pm and went on for an hour and a half.

The session held was very interactive ; it gave a platform for the students to place their views on ragging; the agenda included a formal yet brief introduction of the motives of the Anti-ragging committee , its significance in character building , and the laws framed by the committee after which a debate was conducted on the topic given by the general secretary ; the topic for the debate was ; 'Is ragging a punishable offence?', the team against the topic included Sayli K, Priyanka B, Muskan T and the team for the topic included Neha D, Ashish J, Dhawal S . Some of the points highlighted for the topic were the freedom and safety of students, prevent suppression, voicing out injustice and those against the topic included ragging being a relative term, undue advantage of law for selfish gains, the investigation of the truth at a very latter stage and the repercussions of ragging on a bright future and its effects on career.

After the debate a group discussion that involved the entire class was conducted. The discussion was on the based on the methods to minimize the instances of ragging and identification of the root cause for the same. Some of the points put forth for the reasons and instances of ragging were establishment of dominance, a low self esteem, etc. The methods to reduce these instances that were put forth by the students were the establishment of a healthy relationship between the seniors and juniors, inculcation of a positive attitude, explaining the importance of laws at a young age.

The session held thus provided the students the assurance of the healthy environment that college provides, the holistic development as a sensitive yet strong individual, and the maintenance of a healthy relationship between the juniors and the seniors. It also reinstated the abiding of rules, guidelines and ethics by the college and reassured its students of with a healthy future.

MINUTES OF MEETING OF COLLEGE GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL CELL(CGRC)

Meeting was convened on 7th of January for resolving the grievance of Mr Sanket Mohata , student of second year, Pharmaceutics Branch. As per his complaint given in writing, he was assaulted physically by Mr Sumit Gupta in the PG lab on 6th of January at about 4 pm. Following members were present for the meeting.

1. Chairperson OF CGRC: Dr Supriya Shidhaye
2. Member: Dr Mushtaq Sheikh

Members of the committee did the following during the course of meeting:

1. Watched the cc TV footage
2. Spoke to the complainant Mr Sanket Mohata to listen to his grievance in person
3. All students witness to the incident were called and their statements were recorded with their signatures and audio.

Based on the fact committee came to a conclusion that both the students were at fault as the assault was preceded by provocation. It was decided to consult higher authorities for suitable punishment, which will act as deterrent and also to call their parents and guardian for the same.
