A Brief Summary on the Principle, Application and New Trends in Gene Therapy

Abstract

Gene therapy is the alteration, insertion or removal of genes within an individual's cells and tissues to treat a disease. With the arrival of rDNA technology, cloned genes became available. Efficient retroviral vectors and other gene transfer methods allowed correction of defective genes in-vitro and in-vivo, making gene therapy broadly accepted approach.

Types

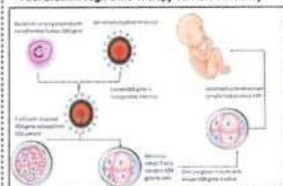

Somatic Cell Gene Therapy

- Gene transfer in somatic cell
- Uninheritable
- Eg: genes introduced in bone marrow, skin

Germ Line Gene Therapy

- Gene transfer into germ cells
- Inheritable
- Eg: Genes introduced into eggs and sperms

First Breakthrough Gene Therapy for ADA deficiency

METHODS

Approaches

- 1) In-vivo: Direct delivery into the cell
- 2) Ex-vivo: In lab petri-dish with cell lines

Statistics of various diseases targeted by gene therapy clinical trials (in percentage)

Personalized Medicine

- Gene Therapy can be customized as per every individual's characteristics.
- Eliminates uncertainty associated with chemotherapy and radiotherapy in cancer treatment
- Provides personalized therapy to patients with specific cancer type
- Eg: Gendicine

CRISPR CAS-9: A Major Breakthrough

Recent Advancements

Diagnosis of COVID-19:

PCR testing: latency, labour intensive
CRISPR SARS-CoV-2 test kit: detects the genome using guide RNA (gRNA), complementary to a specific part of the viral genome and activates a detectable signal.

Current HIV treatment - Antiretroviral Therapy (ART):

Suppresses HIV replication but does not eliminate the virus from the body.
CRISPR Cas-9 with recently developed long-acting, slow-effective release (LASER) ART targets viral sanctuaries and maintains HIV replication at low levels for extended periods of time.

Metal-organic frameworks (MOFs):

- Biocompatible nanomaterial with capacity to carry larger genetic loads
- MOFs coated with phytochemical found in green tea, called epigallocatechin-gallate (EGCG), known for its antioxidant and anticancer properties, was used to treat prostate cancer.
- Effective, safer and cheaper method
- Researchers designed a copolymer using quinine, used in tonic water, and 2-hydroxyethyl acrylate (HEA), which makes the material soluble.
- Quinine is fluorescent and the DNA package could be tracked throughout the body using Raman spectroscopy.

GENE THERAPY

FROM IDEA TO REALITY

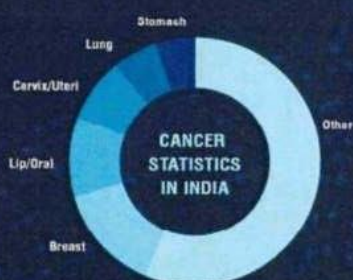

ABSTRACT

With the help of gene therapy we can change the genes of T-cell in such a way that it can identify and kill the cancer cell efficiently. This procedure could also help us to prevent metastasis of cancer cells in early stages thus reducing the mortality.

APPLICATIONS OF GENE THERAPY IN TREATMENT OF

- INHERITED DISEASE
- INFECTIOUS DISEASE
- CARDIAC DISEASE
- NEUROLOGICAL DISEASE
- CANCER

How Gene therapy can help reduce the mortality

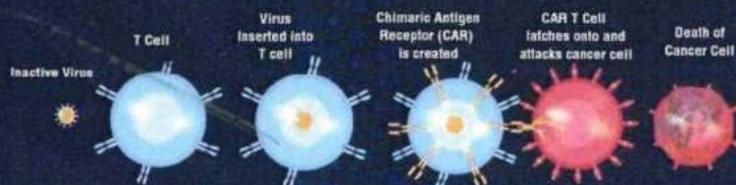

The first trial in the United States to test a CRISPR-made cancer therapy was launched in 2019 at the University of Pennsylvania. The study, funded in part by NCI, is testing a type of Gene therapy in which patients' own immune cells are genetically modified to better "see" and kill their cancer.

Mortality rate in India due to Cancer : 7,84,821

GENE THERAPY IN TREATMENT OF CANCER

CART-cell therapy, which seeks to enhance the natural cancer-fighting ability of patients' own T cells, is one type of Gene therapy

Spectrum, this word might contain just 8 letters, but it means so much more for the entire VESCAP family, as we have grown 13 years since our inception. Vivekanand college of Pharmacy was started in the year 2007 with Boolani sir's vision and his objective - to provide quality education and develop a research aptitude so that students will excel in their chosen fields of academic interest. At the beginning of this long and luminous journey, our college was but a three storied building, nurtured by our Principal ma'am Dr. Mrs. Supriya. Shidhaye and the staff which worked tirelessly and dedicatedly to make it one of the most distinguished colleges in Mumbai. Today, I can say with pride and I am sure you all will join in and agree that we are shaping this college in tune with our mission. Vivekanand College of pharmacy is one of the highest ranked colleges in Mumbai today; it is renowned not only because of its academic progress but also because it's of extra-curricular achievements which its students have regularly demonstrated in various inter-college events.

VESCAP is ranked 67th among Pharmacy institutes across the nation at NIRF 2019, has received NBA Accreditation for B. Pharm up to 2022 as per the OBE System & has received platinum ranking in AICTE CII Survey for Best Industry Linked Institution 2019.

Thank you, ma'am.

We have the pleasure of having with us Hitesh Doshi. Dr. Hitesh Doshi completed his PhD from the BV Patel PERD Centre Ahmedabad in 1997. After completing his PhD, he worked at companies like Sun Pharma, Franco-Indian Pharma, IVAX and Indeus Life Sciences. His area of focus was new product development of generics and value-added generics. While at Franco-Indian, he was responsible for transforming the iron tonic brand leader - Dexorange Syrup from an animal origin hematinic to a synthetic hematinic. He then moved on to the regulated market companies, by joining IVAX where he set up a state-of-the-art cGMP pilot plant for developing generic products for Europe and US. From IVAX he moved on to join the Nordic Group to set up their base in India. After just a year of joining the Nordic Group, the company decided to invest in setting up Indeus Life Sciences, an R&D laboratory and a manufacturing plant in India. When he joined the Nordic Group, he was designated as Director R&D and was then elevated to the position of Managing Director in 2011. His achievements at Indeus include setting up a lab from scratch, building a great R&D team and he was happy to develop some of the most employee-friendly HR policies, which helped a great deal in motivating the team. He also did his MBA during his tenure at Indeus and he stood first in his batch. After having worked with the Nordic Group for 12 years, he decided to do learn and do something different. He left the pharmaceutical field to move on to the Agrochemical industry as VP - R&D of Sulphur Mills. The Agrochemical industry is not as well developed and matured as the pharmaceutical industry. Thus, there was a tremendous scope of doing some ground - breaking work in this field. The amount of formulation scope and the flexibility in formulation design, meeting new people from diverse technical backgrounds motivated him to take this decision. He has about 12 patents to his credit. He strongly believes in giving more than what is expected out of him to the industry and he likes to take on new responsibilities and risks. He was associated with the Controlled Release Society Indian Chapter for almost 20 years from being a student member to Vice President and he worked diligently for the cause of disseminating the knowledge of Controlled Release Technology.

VENUE	Room no. 24, VES College of Pharmacy

Cancer is a disease so critical, that the only hope is stem cell therapy. Understanding this need of the hour, the Marrow Donor Registry India (MDRI) gave VES College of Pharmacy an opportunity to partner with them so that more people register as marrow donors, and subsequently more patients who desperately need access to stem cell transplant from a voluntary donor, have an access to it.

The college students were given a brief overview about the need and importance of Marrow Donation by the volunteers from MDRI. They went on to encourage students to register themselves as donors so that if there is requirement for marrow donation in the future, the volunteers can be further contacted.

The various health parameters of prospective marrow donors was checked, including weight, hemoglobin levels and history of any disease, if occurred. Subsequently, they were asked to donate a sample of their blood which could be used for the purpose of storing the DNA of the registered volunteers. This noble activity was carried out almost painlessly for those who registered.

The registered donors were also given donor cards after the completion of registration.

DATE	12 th September
TIME	4 p.m. to 5 p.m.
VENUE	Seminar Hall
ESTIMATED CROWD	10 faculty + 22 students

Teachers give in all their efforts to teach us every day, all we children can do is make them feel special on the day they deserve. STUDENT COUNCIL along with the ROTARACT CLUB organized a small event for the teachers on the occasion of TEACHER'S DAY.

We had collectively organized a discussion as well as few games for the teachers.

The first event was that the teacher could share his/her inspiration to take up the Teaching Profession. Then there was a Crossword arranged about the teachers with relevant hints and a word search to find names of the teachers. This game was to know how well our teachers know their other teacher friends around. There was also a Word Search of the names of all the teachers hidden among alphabets. It was heartening to see the teachers getting so involved in the games. Top 3 were declared winners based on speed and accuracy in solving both of the games, and were given chocolates as their prize.

After the games, our dear teachers were felicitated with a small memento which expressed our gratitude to them. The felicitation was done by the President of the Student Council and Rotaract Club. We then clicked a group photograph for memory's sake. In all it was a fun event and we are glad that the teachers enjoyed their time.

Corruption is the use of unethical methods to get some advantage by others. It has become one of the big factors of obstructing the development of the individual and country. On occasion of Vigilance Awareness Week, the Students' Council of VESCOP along with the Union bank of India organized an anti-corruption campaign. This event was hosted by Anushka Rajesh from Final Year. It started off with a pledge against corruption, which was then followed by two activities: A Debate, the topic of which was "Can corruption be fought by enactment of laws alone?" and a Poster Making Competition based on Corruption and Swachh Bharat. IN the audience were students from the First Year, the participants and a few Council Members. The winners for Debate were Atreya Karandikar (TY) who received the First Position and Rushabh Sheregar (LY) who came in Second. Umang Ashar (SY) was awarded First Prize for Poster, Kishan Choudhary (TY) came in second, and Nikeeta Palande (TY) came in Third.

Corruption starts with the person itself, corruption is not only on money side but it is in various fields: corruption in thinking, political and professional, administrative and list goes on. We need to work on every field and the major source of transformation is Education, so start educating the child with ethics and morals involved. Fighting corruption is not just good governance. It is self-defence. It is patriotism.

Words have the power to create or destroy, and to weave magic with words is no ordinary task! To witness this magic, we organised an event called 'Just A Minute'. As the name suggests, the participants were given just one minute to express their thoughts about a particular topic. The catch was that they had to use the given topic (word) a maximum number of times, in sensible and connected sentences. It was amusing to watch participants juggling between repeating their word, while also making sense. Out of the seven participants, the first position was bagged by Shardul Parab from the final year, while the second and third positions were bagged by Sanjana Parameswaran and Prerna Dodeja respectively, both of whom are in the third year.
